CITATION FORM

In addition to a short CV, please provide a citation for the nominee, in no more than 750 words. Your citation should be written in the third person (it should not refer to I or we) using full sentences and not use bullet points.

You also do not need to keep referring to your nominee by name: use he/she/they' throughout– which handily saves space.

Talk about the individual personally, not their organisation/team: just like a job application, you're trying to show that this is the right person to choose out of many. The successes of their organisation/team might be relevant – particularly if your nominee has had a leading role – but the citation should be about the individual. What have they, as an individual, done?
